Your Own Story In Watercolour

Saturday Morning: Setting up a palette, choice of paint, paper and brushes. The marks we make, composition, edges, tone, colour, water to pigment ratio. How to use these elements in a painting.

Afternoon: Using your own photographs or reference material to plan your painting. Terry will bring extras if you can't find what you want or need some help in deciding. How to interpret a photo to be able to produce a great painting. Drawing up and getting into some brushwork!

Sunday Morning :

A quick demonstration by Terry of a request by participants, eg water reflections, old stone buildings, foliage on gum trees, figures,
Where to next with our paintings. Continue working with Terry's help.

Spend rest of day working on own paintings.

May start a second one if a faster worker or practise selected techniques. Allow time at end of day to recap what we have covered and critique.

WATERCOLOUR ARTIST Terry Jarvis is one of Australia's exceptional Watercolour Artists. His passion for his craft and his love for the wonderful medium of Watercolour is revealed through his varied subject matter ranging from magnificent Australian scenes, to paintings of his travels which include The Greek Islands, Tuscany – Italy, Finland, Northern Ireland, Sweden, etc. He is a much sought after Tutor across the Globe in Watercolour. He is a regular Tutor across Australia each year, his Exhibitions are always a great success, and he exhibits in most capital Cities across the Nation. He is an award winner in his chosen field and his work hangs in collections in Australia, New Zealand, Sweden, Japan, the UK, U.S.A., Finland, Northern Ireland, Italy, and many other Countries around the World. He has written many Feature articles for Australian Artist Magazine, The Artist Magazine – U.K., and is a featured Artist in 2 books. Terry Loves the challenges that every Watercolour brings, to catch the light, to capture that special moment in time, to discover that Watercolour is forever your master in all of its nuances, its edges, its flow across a page that delights the heart. It will always be a privilege to paint with this wonderful medium. Enjoy!
